HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

Some kids phoned the other day that there was a seal on the rocks in Ocean Beach.

So I went over there and watched the brown seal flipping and flopping like a fish out of water. He was a fair-sized specimen but the kids claimed he was a young one and the mother seal also was in the vicinity.

Well, several fellas were maneuvering toward the seal; pretty soon he slid off into the water with a splash and swam out to sea just as a newspaper photographer drove up too late to get a shot.

Dick Fleming caught a 50-pound yellowtail last week to become high man in the Derby. It was reported to be his first yellow.

This Fleming is quite a guy. He used to run the College Pharmacy, across the street from the old State College at Park Blvd. and El Cajon Ave., and was an expert photographer, carpenter, sign-painter and whatnot. He was adept with rifle, pistol, shotgun and bow-and-arrow.

Dick's, as his drug store was known, specialized in cokes and conversation. He helped a lot of athletes through school—gave them jobs and let 'em sleep in the back of the store. He was never too busy with the cash register to listen to anybody in need of advice, credit, or a loan.

Oh, yeah, and he raised parakeets and goldfish.

* * *

Speaking of parakeets, H. K. (Mac) McGraw, of 4644 Adair St., popped into the Peninsula News office Tuesday to inquire if anybody had lost one.

His son, Douglas, 17, found a parakeet Sunday in some bushes across the street; Mac put it in a cage with his own bird.

Yes, Mrs. J. S. Lunn, 4971 Santa Cruz, had placed a classified ad: "Lost — parakeet, green, leg band No. 61. If found coax with celery. Reward. AC-2-1891."

Mac phoned Mrs. Lunn and it was her bird, all right.

There's a classified ad that did the trick without even being published.

Senator Dick Neuberger (D-Ore.), has introduced a bill in Congress which would require "honest labeling" of political candidates on TV.

I'll purchase that package . . . The idea is to require a candidate to tell his television audience if he uses prompting devices or facial make-up.

This would help eliminate "elements of the theatrical and the synthetic from our national political life," he says. ((Some observers fear that we're likely to elect a bunch of actors and song-and-dance men to Congress before long.)

Neuberger writes his own speeches, I understand. That's fairly rare on the national scene—the average statesman rides into office on the wings of words written by his ghost. Sometimes, I suspect, he has only a vague idea of what some of the words mean.

There's no way of requiring a man to write his own speeches, but maybe he should stipulate that he's wearing a mask, courtesy of Max Factor, and reading from a hidden "blackboard."

See where a 24-year-old steelworker "was stabbed fatally in an Ocean Beach cafe during a fight over playing a juke box."

The cafe's address was given as 2802 Ocean View Blvd.

That's in Logan Heights, son.

QUEEN CANDIDATES—Gay Cowie, left, and Carolyn Zaruba will represent Point Loma and Ocean Beach, respectively, in the Fairest of the Fair-Miss Con-Tour finals at Del Mar June 4. They won a preliminary contest Monday at the Loma Theatre, sponsored by the 20-30 Club. Carolyn is a junior at Point Loma High School; Gay is a senior and member of the Gay-Bon-Lin Trio.—Michael Maconnell photo.

ARMED FORCES DAY MAY 21 TO FEATURE 'OPEN HOUSE'

Armed Forces Day will be observed in San Diego Saturday, May 21, by all branches of the military service. "Open House" will be emphasized so that the general public will have the opportunity to visit military bases and ships in tthe harbor.

Armed Forces Day 1955 finds the United States trimming its military forces to develop a hard-fighting team. The 3,387,000 men in today's armed services are keeping in a state of readiness and efficiency for either a hot or cold war.

President Eisenhower has stated, "We in America have constantly pledged that we will never commit aggression but we must always be prepared to defeat it".

Although May 21 is designated Armed Forces Day, some activities have arranged programs for Friday, May 20 so that the public may gain a broader knowledge of armed might in the area.

The Marine Corps Recruit Depot, where nearly a quarter of a million men have been trained, will hold a formal regimental parade and review of 2,000 troops at 3:15 p.m., May 20.

Commencing at 1 p.m., drive-through tours will permit visitors to get a close look at the Depot's many activities. The First Tank Battalion will display its huge tanks; Sea School, where "spit 'n polish" Marines are trained for duty aboard ship, will show some of the rudiments of a sea-going Marine. Historical weapons will be on display on the grounds and in the lobby of the Depot Theatre.

The Naval Reserve Trainnig Center, Harbor Drive and Lowell St., will be open to visitors May 20 through May 22 from 10 a.m., to 4 p.m. The public may observe the facilities used in training Reserve officers and men. On display will be submarine trainers and a demonstration of model instruction equipment.

The submarine Steelhead, used as a Reserve training vessel, may be visited from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily.

The following installations have announced their schedule of events for Saturday, May 21:

The North Island Naval Air Station will center its activities along the Quay Wall from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. More than 37 types of aircraft will be on display. The planes will range from the sleek Panther and Banshee jets to helicopters and dive and attack bomber of the Navy's air-arm.

Two ultra modern aircraft carriers, the Shangri-la and Kearsarge, the escort carrier Point Cruz and a seaplane tender will be open to public visiting.

Additional exhibits will include survival equipment, a fire power show and drone ground demonstration.

An afternoon-long military band concert will be featured

To facilitate parking, the Air Station will open its Harbor Drive parking lot, adjacent to the ferry, free of charge. Water taxis will run from the Star & Crescent landing at the foot of Market St.

The Coast Guard Air Station will hold open house from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and demonstrate air-sea rescue equipment.

A review of recruits will take place at the Naval Training Center at 10 a.m. and the Drum and Bugle Corps will perform at 1 p.m. Visitors will be permitted to drive through the station from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Remodeling Job Is Under Way

Remodeling of the old Bank of America Building at Newport Ave. and Bacon St., Ocean Beach, was started last week.

The extensive remodeling job will modernize the building, according to Hy Glaser, who, with his brothers, Elmer and Max Glaser, bought it last year.

It will have three separate stores, available for retail establishments, fronting on Newport.

The Glaser brothers operate seven retail clothing and shoe stores under the name of Elm's in San Diego County. Elm's in Ocean Beach was opened in 1938.

"It is felt," said Hy Glaser, "that improving one of the key corners in Ocean Beach signifies the continued growth and progress of this area."

3 Local Anglers Due To Compete

With the first of four qualifying periods in the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby scheduled to close Saturday and with the one-day fishoff for the top 100 anglers booked for next Wednesday, at least three anglers from the Point Loma-Ocean Beach area seem practically certain to be on the firing line when the chips go down.

Heading the trio is C. E. Myhrvold with a 29 pound 7 ouncer, and the other two are Russ Light, 26 pounds, and Tom Munn, 25-2. Munn could beb eliminated by a last minute heavy batch of registrations, but the other two appear safe.

Landing of the largest yellowtail checked in by a derby contestant in two years spurred last minute efforts to qualify before the curtain drops Saturday night and the new period begins the following day.

The big one was a 50 pound 3 ouncer caught by Dick Fleming, retired San Diego druggist, who made the catch at the Point Loma kelp beds on a routine afternoon bass and barracuda run made by the Mascot III. Runner-up for top weekly honors was a 33-13 caught by Dick Whiteley, Alhambra, at the Coronado Islands from the Betty Lou.

As the last week of qualifying for first period finalist berths began, the season's yellowtail catch was hovering at the 11,000 mark, nearly triple the catch for the same period last year.

SHORELINE PLANNING GROUP WARNS OF OIL FUND 'RAID'

"It will not be long now before the big raid on the Oil Royalty Fund will be on, with nearly 30 State Senate and Assembly bills having been filed for that purpose."

That statement was issued this week by the Shoreline Planning Association, Inc., of Santa Monica.

"The aggregate of dollars asked in these bills," it was said, "is nearly double the amount of the Oil Royalty Fund. It is not a very consistent-looking picture.

"After all these fifteen years of planning by our counties and cities, and approval of their master plans by our State Park officials and enactment into law by our Lsgislature, and release of the Oil Royalty Fund from impoundment, we have finally arrived at the point where our long-delayed Recreational Facilities Program can be consummated to meet the need of our tremendous increase in population.

"This means that funds are available for acquisition of all suitable beaches and park sites and other related recreational facilities.

"Through this process we are converting a very important part of our natural resources into the greatest of all outdoor recreational facilities, the use of which has become extremely popular, as evidenced by attendance records kept at our presently-owned beaches and parks.

"It is a fact, however, that the outcome of all of this great program now depends upon what is done with the bills which have been introduced in the Legislature for the purpose of diverting the Oil Royalty money away from beaches and parks and through other channels. A large amount of money can be squandered if a change in organization is undertaken.

"We must not let this happen! The welfare of the people of the entire State depends to a large extent upon this program being brought to a succesful conclusion.

"This can be done only if the Oil Royalty money is held intact for beaches and parks and other related recreational facilities ,as provided in Public Resources Code Section 6816."

Membership cards can be exchanged for tickets to performances by mail or at the university administration building on Lomaland Dr.

S. D. To Have First Showing Of "Nile Mother"

Turning a spotlight upon one of the most remarkable personalities in modern history, "The Nile Mother", graphic color film story of Lillian Trasher and her work among the homeless children of Egypt, will be shown on May 16 at the First Presbyterian Church, 4th and Date Streets, San Diego, at 7:30 p.m.

An 18,000-mile "location-trip" to Egypt was made by a photographer-writer to secure authentic scenes of the famed orphanage at Assiut, where Miss Trasher in the past forty-five years has given food, shelter and hope to approximately eight thousand homeless children, and ot the helpless and blind.

Her efforts to salvage young has gained wide recognition lives and "give them a chance" through newspaper and magazine articles and pictures around the globe. Miss Trasher has been called "the greatest American woman living abroad." Wendell Wilkie was "amazed" when he visited the orphanage on the Nile during a world tour, and even the Prime Minister of Egypt while inspecting the home described it as "truly a work of God."

"The Nile Mother" is a story of tended compassion and illustrates the power of a life dedicated to the service of others. "The orphanage is a miracle of "God's grace," is the way Miss Trasher explains it.

Film highlights include scenes of the pyramids and Sphinx, the River Nile with its strange sailing craft, village people and the amazing spectacle of "life inside the orphanage" where hundreds of children are today living, studying and preparing for a better future.

Filmed in full color, the picture is shown without charge and the public is invited
